Literacy Day

For 3 days last week, K-2 students enjoyed attending the school with their favorite books and wearing their favorite character costumes. Every student gave a mini presentation about the book and the costume in front of his/her peers and mothers. Before the presentations, a lecture entitled "The Child and the Book" was held for the mothers and the children in order to reinforce the importance of reading. We would like to thank Mrs. Nouf Al Shamekh and Mrs. Hayat Buhlel for this presentation. We would also like to extend our gratitude to all the teachers and supervisors for encouraging the children to read in both Arabic and English.

Fathers' Visit

We would like to welcome the fathers to visit the girls' schools, both branch and main building (all grades), on Tuesday, April 25th, 2017, from 6:30 – 8:30 PM.

Students from Kindergarten and Early Elementary only can accompany their fathers during the visit.

You are all welcome.

Arabic Language Workshops

In support of the teaching of the Arabic language, DAS organized a variety of workshops such as; Reading Comprehension, Writing Workshop and "I am a Reader" Project.

We would like to thank the supervisors for introducing these workshops; Mrs. Khadija Al Amudi, Mrs. Rima Jammal, Mrs. Huda Tahbub, Mrs. Cheza Al Kudmani, and Mrs. Sana Al Tamimi. Also, we would like to thank Mrs. Haifa Al Dossary for coordinating all the workshops effectively.

Costume Parade

On Sunday, April 16, 2017, KG 3 students chose stories and wore matching character costumes for their chosen stories. Every student stood up in front of his/her peers and the mothers to introduce the story he/she represents. Mothers and children were very excited to participate in the events of the day. After that, the children walked in a costume parade where they had a tour around the school with their mothers and teachers.
