Arabic Reading Challenge 2017/2018

Inspired by Dhahran Ahliyya's mission and vision that supports Shaikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum's initiative for Arabic Reading Challenge, the schools have been registered to participate in this competition.

The competition goals are:

- 1- To develop Arabic linguistic skills among youth regionally and internationally.
- 2- To enhance a sense of belonging to a national Arab identity.
- 3- To spread the values of tolerance, moderation and acceptance.
- 4- To influence a generation of distinguished and innovative people.
- 5- To provide an integrated model for other project of a similar nature across the Arab World.
- 6- To contribute to the movement of authorship, translation, printing and publishing in order to further enrich Arab libraries.

We would like to inform you that the reading passports have given to the participant students. They are expected to return them on February 11, 2018, at the latest.

Parents are expected to encourage their children to participate in this competition. The first phase will take place from February 11-13, 2018 and second phase will take place from February 14-15, 2018. For more information, please follow the links below:
