The Gratitude of the Kindergarten Community Towards the Mothers who Attended the General Meeting

Dear parents and guardians, we graciously thank you for your communication and support from the very beginning of the academic year. We are pleased by your attendance for the general meeting and for completing the assessment format. The percentage of the attendance reached 58%, and we promise you that we will take your notes and suggestions into consideration. We planned for the meeting in a way to make you feel comfortable and in the same time you can have a clear idea about the content and the educational goals that are expected from our students this year. This meeting will be renewed the next first individual meeting which will help us to know your children's personalities and the social and health-related aspects so we can take care of them in order to achieve the required expectations from this level.

Our Gratitude Towards the Mothers who Attended the General Parents' Meeting for All Grades

The continuous communications between school and home is considered to be an essential factor to build a solid active partnership to benefit our students. The attendance percentage of mothers in the meeting for grades (1-2 boys) reached 59% and in grades (1-5 girls) reached 53% and in both intermediate and secondary levels reached 10%. we greatly thank the mothers for their attendance and support to build ways of communication with the school.

The Sixth Annual Welcome Meeting for Mothers who Volunteered

Volunteering and supporting activities is considered to be one of the major fields through which both families and school can build an active connection in order to fulfill or school mission in order to make a positive difference locally and globally. Therefore, our school has arranged the sixth annual welcome meeting on Thursday September 12th, 2019 in the multipurpose room. This meeting explained the importance of volunteering for the individual service and for the development of the society. It also explained the history of volunteering in our schools and its different fields.

As we thanked the mothers who volunteered. We were pleased to meet you all and we look forward to include more numbers of mothers in the future.

*Based on the instructions from The Ministry of Education, we would like to inform you that next Monday is the Saudi National Day which is also will be a national vacation. Our schools are determined to celebrate this occasion with all levels from Tuesday September 24th 2019 to Monday September 30th 2019.

note*: students can attend school with popular local costumes (all levels) according to the approved measures. Students are not allowed to bring all kinds of cooked food.
