Students Projects Exhibition

On Tuesday December 10th, 2019, our students in the 12th grade 'Muqarrarat' presented their Graduation Projects. We extend our sincere gratitude to colleagues, teachers, supervisors as well as the judges who participated with their suggestions and discussions which helped students to get the full picture and strive to develop their projects. Special thanks go to the projects coordinator Mr. Muhammed Al-Waslati who made a great effort and collaborated with students and supervisors for presenting students projects in a remarkable way that reflected their learning.

Graduation Projects exhibition was an important academic requirement that helped students to gain meaningful research skills as well as self-management skills and critical thinking. It was a chance to build a strong foundation for students to establish a college professional life, especially from using all the acquired skills and information.

Wishing everyone all luck and success, hoping that every year will be better than the year before.

We thank the Services Department and the Technology Department for their support in making this a wonderful educational day.

“Green Eastern Province” Initiative

Within the ‘Action and Service’ program for our students in the intermediate level, Seventh Grade students participated with Dhahran City Hall in “Green Eastern Province” Initiative on Tuesday 24/12/2019 that was sponsored by the Civil Secretariat of the Eastern Province and launched by HRH Prince Saud Bin Nayef Bin Abdulaziz, for cultivation and afforestation of the cities of the region in order to increase green spaces.. it was also attended by Mr. Muhammed Bin Jasim Al-Jasim, Chief of Dhahran City Hall and a number of its members .. our students succeeded in planting the first seedlings in Northern Doha’s Garden.

Mr. Al-Jasim has expressed his admirations to our students for what they have done and contributed for the society, and to our schools for planning such activities that will implement the spirit of initiative and create many chances that will enhance the kingdom's development and its vision for 2030

We would like to extend our sincere gratitude to our dear students, and also to Mr. Bilal AbuSleem ,the project's supervisor.. to those who accompanied the students, Mr. Saleh Al-Ali, Mr. Ahmad Al-Ahmad and Mr. Massaiad Al-Quwinim from the Activities Department, as well as Mr. Waleed Al-Laithi, MYP Projects Coordinator.

Wishing our students the best of luck.

The Football Tournament

Within the elementary level's sport activities , a Football tournament was held on Monday December 23rd ,2019 where each division participated in two teams. Each team played three matches in the groups level which has resulted in Grades (3-b) and (3-c) reaching the final match which was later concluded with Grade (3-b) winning the match scoring (1-0). On the other hand, Student 'Saad Al-Swailem' won the 'best player' title. Many thanks go to the tournament coordinator Mr. Abdulaziz Al-Hammad and to the schools administration for supporting the tournament.
