

DAS News Brief

Salat Al-Istisqa was held, in accordance with the Sunnah of the Prophet ﷺ with students and staff in attendance.

Our schools were honored by His Royal Highness Prince Saud bin Nayef for achieving national accreditation and excellence awards.

The Health Clinic, in cooperation with the Sewak medical team, held an awareness program on "Oral and Dental Health" for elementary students.

Within its enrichment programs, the school organized the "Good Old Days" event for elementary students.

As part of staff development efforts, the schools held a training session on "Data Privacy."

As part of the sports program, a friendly basketball game was held between our team and Al-Majd Schools.