

January 8th, 2026

Issued by the Activities Department – Boys Section

No. of Issue 13 - Final Issue of the First Semester

مدارس الظهران الأهلية
Dhahran Ahliyya Schools

DAS News Brief

As part of the academic programs, Grade 9 students carried out a simulation model of the Saudi Shura Council.

The Founder of the Schools, Sheikh Khalid Al-Turki, and the Schools' President, Dr. Sally Al-Turki, welcomed the Alumni Council of the previous term and praised their efforts.

Six students from our schools were qualified to participate in the final exhibition of the Ibdaa Olympiad 2026 in Riyadh: Ahmed Shalabi, Ahmed Al-Mulla, Khalid Hannawi, Ammar Al-Briaki, Saud Saber, and Mohammed Al-Sanan.

Business Administration Track students visited TO YOU Company in Riyadh to learn about corporate work and connect education with the labor market.

Elementary students participated in the Unit Celebration, presenting their projects and applying inquiry-based learning methods.

Students Mirza Al-Qasim and Khalid Laban participated in the Absher Hackathon in Riyadh with a project focused on enhancing the Absher user experience.

January 8th, 2026

Issued by the Activities Department – Boys Section

No. of Issue 13 - Final Issue of the First Semester

مدارس الظهران الأهلية
Dhahran Ahliyya Schools

DAS News Brief

Our students participated in the Winter Clothing Initiative, collecting, recycling, and distributing used clothes to those in need.

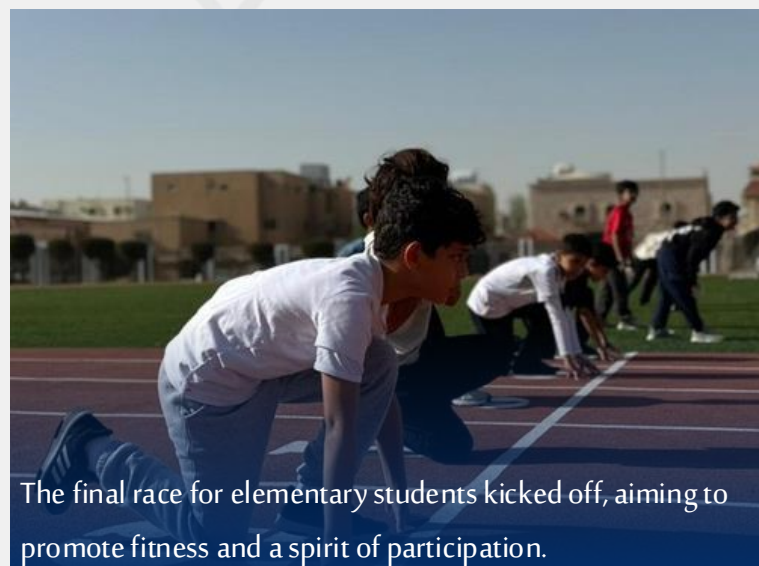

As part of the arts activities, our students presented a music and theatre performance attended by parents and school staff.

Several high school students participated in a public speaking workshop organized by the Volunteer Department at King Fahd University of Petroleum & Minerals.

Several high school students participated in a public speaking workshop organized by the Volunteer Department at King Fahd University of Petroleum & Minerals.

The final race for elementary students kicked off, aiming to promote fitness and a spirit of participation.

The DAS Talk event was held for Grade 5 students, where they delivered outstanding presentations in public speaking.

DAS News Brief

The final Associations Exhibition for elementary students was held, featuring 24 booths where students showcased the skills and knowledge they had acquired.

To enhance Arabic calligraphy skills, an Arabic Calligraphy Competition was held for elementary students.

Students from the Chinese Language Club visited a Chinese restaurant, learning about Chinese cuisine and cultural traditions.

Student Suleiman Balaous won the gold medal at the 2025 Saudi Open Muay Thai Championship and earned a nomination to the Saudi national team.

Elementary students from the Customs and Traditions Club visited Zaman Al-Tayebeen Museum and Restaurant to promote national identity.

The Positive Climate Committee organized a recreational activity for school staff, including lunch and various events to promote engagement.

DA News Brief

2025–2026

- 13 biweekly issues
- 94 documented news stories
- Coverage of 10+ administrative and faculty teams

Thanks and Appreciation

To the School Activities Department, the educational and administrative teams, and all who contributed, for producing this newsletter reflecting the spirit of teamwork and quality.