Dhahran Ahliyya Team's "Fokahi" Project Wins 2nd Place in "From Idea to Project" Competition

With the participation of 800 students, the Dhahran Ahliyya team secured second place with their project "Fokahi" at the "From Idea to Project" competition, held over four days on November 5, 2025, as part of the Schools Forum at Al Yamamah University. The program aims to empower ambitious students and stimulate innovative thinking by turning their ideas into real projects.

The "Fokahi" project encourages children to enjoy dried fruits in a fun and engaging way through interactive boxes made from sustainable materials. Each box contains a variety of dried fruits and features an interactive app that raises health awareness and promotes activities using playful characters, contributing both to children's health and environmental protection.

We congratulate our school on this achievement, which reflects hard work and dedication. Special thanks go to the participating students: Diala Al-Dossary, Talin Al-Sharfa, and Maria Al-Qatari, under the supervision of teachers Hajar Sabri and Esraa Abdulaziz, as well as accompanying teachers Iman Al-Zaher, Reem Al-Otaibi, and Arwa Al-Mubarak, who documented the event. Grade 10 students also attended to support the team and explore the university and its programs.

We extend our heartfelt congratulations to our students and their families for this remarkable achievement.

In a remarkable event reflecting the strong collaboration between school and family, the tenth-grade (Diploma) students held the ninth edition of the Mid-Year Personal Project Exhibition for the 2025–2026 academic year. Students showcased preliminary samples of their projects, designed to align with the International Baccalaureate methodology and to strengthen research, design, and innovation skills.
